LIGHT OF THE EARTH

by Peter Stevens

Darkness enfolding
Warmth gently holding
Our precious gift
Soon to come to the light.

Darkness enfolding
Sweet beginnings withholding
Until light brings you to us
In joy and in life.

Love all abounding
Such love all surrounding
To hold you so tightly
In our hearts and our lives.

To welcome you
To watch o'er you
To marvel at your birth
O Marama, the light of the Earth.
